

Loca	tion
•	Have you selected a location for your bathroom/s?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Is your bathroom near your bedrooms?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Is your bathroom near the main hot water system, laundry and kitchen?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	If not, and if the bathroom will be a substantial distance from your hot water system, will you install:
	<ul> <li>an additional hot water system (perhaps a small continuous flow system), or</li> </ul>	☐ Yes	□ No
	o a cold water diverter?	☐ Yes	□ No
Size	and layout
•	Do you know how big your bathroom will be?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Do you know what shape your bathroom will be?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	What are the dimensions of your bathroom (length x width x height)?
•	Do you have enough space to install a bathtub?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Do you have enough space to install a shower stall?	☐ Yes	□ No
	Minimum shower stall size is 0.9m x 0.9m
•	If you have a small bathroom, will you install:
	<ul> <li>a bathtub with a shower over it</li> </ul>	☐ Yes	□ No
	<ul> <li>a curved shower stall, installed in a corner</li> </ul>	☐ Yes	□ No
	<ul> <li>a wet room (i.e. a shower head but no shower walls)?</li> </ul>	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Do you have enough room for a full sized vanity cabinet, or a two-basin cabinet?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	If not, will you install a pedestal-type vanity (i.e. a free-standing basin) and a wall-mounted shelf?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	If you're renovating, will your major plumbing fixtures be installed in the same places to take advantage of existing plumbing?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Will anything in your layout interfere with peoples' passage in and out of the bathroom door?	☐ Yes	□No
•	Have you talked to a licensed electrician about where electrical outlets and switches can be placed in relation to water outlets?	□ Yes	□ No
•	Have you identified where to install towel rails so that they're both convenient and sensible?	□ Yes	□No

Who will use it?
Will the bathroom be use	Will the bathroom be used by more than one person at a time?		□ No
<ul> <li>Will children use the bathroom now or in the near future, and are bathroom fixtures designed with their convenience and safety in mind?</li> </ul>		☐ Yes	□ No
<ul> <li>Will anyone with special bathroom now or in the</li> </ul>	needs or impaired mobility need to use the near future?	☐ Yes	□ No
If so, will you install:
o a wet room		☐ Yes	□ No
<ul> <li>grab rails (consident shower and bath)</li> </ul>	er how they might be fitted in future to the toilet, tub)	☐ Yes	□ No
o a shower seat		☐ Yes	□ No
o anti-slip enhance	ements in the shower and bathtub	☐ Yes	□ No
o a walk-in bathtul	0	☐ Yes	□ No
o a bath lift		☐ Yes	□ No
<ul> <li>wheelchair acces</li> </ul>	ss through doors	☐ Yes	□ No
o space for wheeld	hair access under the vanity?	☐ Yes	□ No
Heating, ventilation and lighting
Will you need heating in		□ Yes	□ No
If so, will you install:	,		_ o heat lamps		☐ Yes	□ No
o radiant bar heati	ng	□ Yes	□ No

	0	heat lamps	☐ Yes	□ No
	0	radiant bar heating	☐ Yes	□ No
	0	under-floor hydronic heating	☐ Yes	□ No
	0	double-glazed windows or special window films – including on skylights or roof windows	☐ Yes	□ No
	0	heated towel rails?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Have y	ou factored in sufficient ventilation for your shower?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Will yo	ou install an exhaust fan with an automatic steam sensor?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Is your	exhaust vent located directly above the shower?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	•	our shower screen, shower curtain or shower frame limit the amount tentering your shower area?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Will yo	our bathroom be lit using 'cool', bright light?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Will yo	ou install extra task lighting around your vanity mirror?	☐ Yes	□ No
	Lightir	ag an aither side is preferable to lights above or helow

•	Will your bathroom have sufficient access to daylight, as outlined in Building Code of Australia (BCA) regulations?	□ Yes	□No
•	Are you able to install regular wall-mounted windows?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	If so, have you considered frosted glass or glass tiles for privacy?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Have you considered a skylight. clerestory window or sawtooth roof instead of a regular window?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Do you have a light colour scheme in mind?	☐ Yes	□ No
Style	and theme
•	Have you considered using a bathroom designer?	☐ Yes	□ No
	A bathroom designer can help with your design, advice on fittings and fixtures, hiring tradespeople and evaluating work
•	Do you have a specific design 'theme' in mind for your bathroom?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Does the bathroom style you want complement the rest of your home?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Do you have an idea of the colours you would like to use?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Are you planning on using any bright or bold colours?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Have you discussed your paint options with a paint expert?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	Have you taken ease of access, ease of use and maintenance into account while choosing your fittings and fixtures?	☐ Yes	□No
	Style is important, but so is function. Consider how your fittings and fixtures will affect users, as well a how much maintenance will be required
•	If you're renovating, have you considered refurbishing and/or reusing original fittings and fixtures?	☐ Yes	□ No
•	If you're renovating, have you checked with a plumber to see whether you will require a tempering valve to be installed?	☐ Yes	□ No
Budg	et and cost
•	What is your budget for your bathroom?	$
•	How much have you allocated to spend on:
	<ul> <li>trade services (plumbing, building, waterproofing, electrics)</li> </ul>	$
	<ul> <li>fittings and fixtures</li> </ul>
	(bathtubs, shower screens, vanity units, mirrors, electrical fittings, plumbing fittings)	$
	<ul> <li>unforseen extras (breakages, extra work)</li> </ul>	$
	<ul> <li>building permits, if necessary</li> </ul>	$
•	Have you shopped around for at least three different quotes?	☐ Yes	 □ No

Other considerations

•	Will you need a building permit?		☐ Yes	□ No
	This is generally only for renovations above a certain value, which alter the structure of your home. Check with your local building authority, as they vary by state
•	If you do need a building permit, how much will it cost?	$
•	Have you set a timeframe for building or renovation?		□ Yes	□ No
•	Have you confirmed the timeframe with your tradespeople and suppliers?		☐ Yes	□ No
•	Have you discussed your quality and workmanship expectations with the builder?		☐ Yes	□No
•	If necessary, have you made alternative bathroom arrangements for when		□ Yes	□ No